By now, you've already heard about how thousands of acts hit Austin, TX each March for South by Southwest. This is just a known thing. And while most of the head turners are established acts performing rare, once-in-a-lifetime concerts within intimate venues (y'know, like Bruce or Jack), it's really about the young, budding artists showcasing "what they've got."

We saw those, too. We saw plenty.

That's why each CoS writer who hit the streets of Austin last week came back with two new favorite acts. These were ones that stuck to their shoes, their hearts, and now their iPods. We call 'em "CoSigns" because we're all willing to "co-sign" on all of the talent here. Get it?

Figured it was clever enough. Anyways, now that you've got all the necessary context, go ahead and check out what could be your next favorite new act. We've got 10 in all.
